Madison County Federal Credit Union recently reached a significant milestone—90 years of serving our members and community! This achievement was honored at the Madison County Chamber Annual Gala, where MCFCU was recognized for its long-standing commitment to providing trusted financial services and strengthening the local economy.

Since 1935, MCFCU has been dedicated to helping individuals and families achieve financial stability, offering personalized banking solutions, and fostering local partnerships. Over the past nine decades, we have grown alongside our members, adapting to their changing needs while staying true to our mission of putting people first.

In addition to this milestone recognition, we are proud to share that MCFCU President and CEO David Dodd was honored with the prestigious Keith Pitcher Character in Business Award. This award, named in memory of Keith Pitcher, a former President and CEO of the Madison County Chamber, is presented annually to a business leader who exemplifies outstanding character, ethical leadership, and a commitment to both business and community success.
