Who is providing this notice?

Madison County Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does Madison County FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to only those employees who need to know information to provide products or services to you.

How does Madison County FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or pay your bills
- apply for a loan or use your debit or credit card
- make deposits or withdrawals on your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your decision will then apply to all joint owners on your account.
